

Proposed Pathway Improvements at a Glance

These are the major improvements being proposed for the pathway that starts from the junction at Bert Turner Boulevard and finishes at the bus and tram station. They are listed by where you'll find them along the pathway.

Bert Turner Boulevard Junction (Take a look at the artist's impression)

(View from Bert Turner Boulevard before improvements)

- New Trees planted
- New Cycle route
- New Bollards
- Pathway Widened
- New Cycling signs
- New Directions signpost
- Kerb line moved
- Granite paving
- New Pavement design

Improvements around the Indoor Market Entrance

- New widened Pathway outside indoor market entrance
- New Paving outside indoor market entrance
- New Trees planted
- Recycled trip rail added
- Trip rails repainted
- Metal railings painted
- New Cycling signs at traffic lights

Outdoor Market Entrance (Take a look at the artist's impression)

(View from outdoor market entrance before improvements)

- Clay & brick pavement design
- Noticeboard moved & painted

Bus and Tram Station (Take a look at the artist's impression)

(View from bus and tram station before improvements)

- Old entrance archways painted
- Fences repainted
- New railings across old entrance archways
- Bilston Market logo repainted

- Trees pruned
- New Trees planted
- New Bollards
- New Directions signpost
- New Plants and shrubs
- New Benches
- Old Bollards removed
- Cycle Racks repainted
- New Litter bin

- New Trees planted
- New Hedge planted
- Pathway widened
- New Cycle route
- New Bollards
- New Litter bin
- New Cycling signs
- Red brick paving design
- New Street sign
- New Shrubs

